HOUSING AUTHORITY OF THE TOWN OF PHILLIPSBURG

Legal Notices

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that pursuant to New Jersey P.L. 2025, c. 72 (formerly Senate Bill 4654), the Housing Authority of the Town of Phillipsburg will be transitioning the complete text of all Legal Notices for the public to obtain or view on the Authority's official website, www.phillipsburgha.com. This notice is required under the new law to inform the public of this change. The Housing Authority of the Town of Phillipsburg has also designated Tapinto as its official online news publication, at www.tapinto.net/towns/phillipsburg.

Legal Notices will continue to be published in the Express Times newspaper through February 28, 2026 as required by law, including a link to the Legal Notice page on the Authority's website, www.phillipsburgha.com.

A new Legal Notice is required to be sent in March, 2026 to include the Secretary of State's central legal notices website link to this notice for the remainder of calendar year 2026 as required by law.

All Legal Notices posted online will remain accessible to the public at no charge. The website will also maintain an archive of past notices as required by law.

This change is being made in accordance with this new state law, which recognizes that online publication provides more accessible and cost-effective access to public information for a greater number of New Jersey residents.
